

MARK J. SYMS, MD

THE HEARING LOSS PHYSICIAN

ABOUT DR. SYMS

Dr. Syms is “the hearing loss physician”. He is one of the first physicians in the country to be board-certified in ear and hearing related disorders (neurotology- subspecialty of otolaryngology/head and neck surgery known as the “E” of “ENT”). With nearly three decades of experience treating hearing loss and complex diseases of the ear, Dr. Syms has helped tens of thousands of people improve their quality of life. In his new book, Listen Up! A Physician’s Guide To Effectively Treating Your Hearing Loss, Dr. Syms shares his experience and guides you on your journey to better hearing and a better life. Dr. Syms is the founder and CEO of Arizona Hearing Center. Dr. Syms serves as a Director of Neurotology at the Barrow Neurological Institute where he is also a Director of the Acoustic Neuroma Center. Dr. Syms frequently lectures on hearing loss locally, nationally and internationally and is an extensively published author. He is also a member of numerous professional organizations.

About Dr. Syms' Book

Do I need to treat my hearing loss now?" "What type of hearing aids should I buy?" "Why don't my hearing aids work as well as they should?" These are just a few of the questions Dr. Syms answers for you in his new book, Listen Up! A Physician’s Guide To Effectively Treating Your Hearing Loss. Dr. Syms gives you a plan of action for restoring your hearing so you can get back to living your best life. As with thousands of others, Dr. Syms will help you maintain your independence, strengthen relationships, and live a vibrant social life filled with the sound of friends, family, and laughter. He will tell you the best way to go about hearing health care treatment, why so many hearing aids fail and how to avoid that, the importance of follow-up care, why early treatment is so important to your long-term physical and mental well-being, and so much more! In this groundbreaking and easy to understand book, Dr. Syms shows you how to maintain healthy hearing so you can get back to living your best life!
